About the Festival

For over a decade, the RVA French Food Festival has served up the best of French culture and cuisine in a fun, family-friendly atmosphere.

Each year, a team of talented Richmond chefs bring the beauty, taste, and history of French cuisine to Richmond.

Accompanying the delicious tastes are the sights and sounds of French culture with live music and entertainment for adults and children alike. The festival is also home to the Parisian Marketplace, featuring some of the most unique vendors in Richmond.

Funds raised by the 12th annual RVA French Food Festival directly support the elderly residents of St. Joseph's Home and Commonwealth Catholic Charities' senior care programs.

St. Joseph's Home

St. Joseph's Home provides independent living, assisted living, and nursing care for the elderly poor. Over the past 145 years, thousands of individuals have been loved and cared for at St. Joseph's Home by the Little Sisters of the Poor. Although the Little Sisters have announced their pending departure from Richmond due to a decreasing number of Sisters, St. Joseph's Home will continue to operate. Proceeds from the RVA French Food Festival will directly support St. Joseph's Home as they continue to provide the same quality of care for all residents.

Commonwealth Catholic Charities

Since 1923, Commonwealth Catholic Charities has provided critical services to the most vulnerable. Through a wide variety of services including Aging & Disability Services, Adoption, Foster Care, Income & Asset-building Services, Homeless Services, and Refugee and Immigration Services, CCC provides services to tens of thousands of individuals and families throughout Virginia every year.
